HOW TO USE IT

- Print at 'Actual size' (100%), not 'Fit to page', so the place cards come out the right size.
- Every writing line is fillable: click and type in Adobe Acrobat Reader, Preview or a browser, save, then print. Or print blank and write by hand.
- Print only the pages you want. Cut place cards on the dashed lines; fold place cards on the dotted line. Card stock makes them sturdier.

The last page shows the full kits these pages come from.

GIFT EXCHANGE GAME

HOW TO PLAY

Sit in a circle, each holding a wrapped gift. Read the story slowly. Every time you hear LEFT, pass your gift to the left. Every time you hear RIGHT, pass it to the right. When the story ends, the gift in your hands is yours.

Nora's Cookie Delivery

On the snowiest night of the year, Nora Winters LEFT her warm kitchen with a tin of cookies for the neighbors. She had baked them RIGHT after lunch, and the house still smelled of ginger and cinnamon.

At the end of the lane she turned LEFT, then RIGHT, then stopped. Had she LEFT the oven on? No, she was sure she had turned it off RIGHT before she went out.

The dog's owner, young Leo, came running out. "Sorry! He thinks every hat is a toy. Are you all RIGHT?" Nora said she was fine, and gave Leo the last two cookies in the tin. Now there was nothing LEFT but crumbs.

Walking home, she counted the lights in every window, on the LEFT side and on the RIGHT side, all the way down the lane. When she reached her own door, something was waiting RIGHT on the doormat: a tin just like hers, full of fudge, with a note that said, "Thank you for the cookies. Love, Leo."

Nora smiled, carried it inside, and LEFT the door open a moment longer to listen to the carollers singing down the street. It was the RIGHT ending to the RIGHT kind of night. And that is the end of our story, so whatever gift is in your hands RIGHT now is yours to keep. Merry Christmas!

Tip: read it with feeling and pause after each LEFT and RIGHT so everyone can pass.
